

The National Whig

FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 2, 1847.

"I go for the country, the whole country—and it is my ardent and sincere wish to see the individual placed at the head of the nation, who, by a strict observance of the constitution (be he who he may), can make us most prosperous at home, as well as most respected abroad."

Z. TAYLOR.

FOR PRESIDENT, IN 1848,
MAJOR GENERAL
ZACHARY TAYLOR,
OF LOUISIANA,
THE HERO
OF
PALO ALTO, RESACA DE LA PALMA,
MONTEREY,
And Buena Vista.
Subject to the decision of the Whig National Convention.

WHIG NOMINATION
FOR GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND,
WILLIAM T. GOLDSBOROUGH,
OF DORCHESTER COUNTY.

PEACE.—There are rumors afloat that advances have been received by the Executive of a peace having been concluded by Gen. Scott with a government of his own setting up in the city of Mexico. We attach no credit to them.

We fully agree with the Washington Union of last evening on one point relative to the forged Taylor letter, and that is, that the fusion of the Whig and Democratic parties, under any administration is impracticable, and that no man can be elected to the Presidency, without occupying one or the other of the opposing political platforms.

The Common Council have appointed a committee to consider and report the manner in which the city of Washington shall extend to Colonel May the hospitalities of his fellow-citizens. A right and a proper movement this.

The Lynchburg Virginian, d, gives the lie direct to the Washington Union about the authorship of the Scott proclamation. It says that Scott is not the author of it, but that it is a production of the Administration.

Mr. Clay has written a letter in which he expresses the belief that under the present tariff, when food becomes abundant in Europe, our manufactures will not be able to compete with European manufactures.

E. Montague, late Mayor of New Orleans, will run as independent Democratic candidate for next Congress from Mr. Ellid's old District. Hope our friends will put a man on the track who will head both him and the regular nominee.

B. F. Ross, Adjutant of the Arkansas Reg't, and who fought so much like a lion at Buena Vista is a full blood Cherokee Indian. He was promoted from the ranks to the Adjutancy.

We perceive that Mr. W. C. Jones who lately took to wife one of Colonel Benton's daughters has sold out his interest in the New Orleans Mercury to his late partner Mr. C. R. Sessions.

Mr. Edwards, Commissioner of Pensions and Mr. Marcy are receiving the blessing of the purchase of soldiers' bounty rights in New Orleans, for refusing to act upon the seven or eight hundred cases of this character, which have recently been rejected. If Mr. E. and Mr. M. would only visit N. Orleans about this time, they would realize a state of feeling which they are not aware of.

Alexander Deconet is spoken of as the Taylor candidate for the next Congress from Isaac E. More's district in Louisiana. Tip More voted to censure the old Hero, and that has fixed his flint.

The New Orleans National says that Mr. Polk's Mexican Tariff law first robs the merchants who trade in his possessions in Mexico, and then the petty officials of the Army at the several posts prevent them from selling except by wholesale. This is all in character with the Administration. Like master like man is the rule.

Mr. Vice President Dallas has gone to Schooley's Mountain to spend the hot summer months of July and August.

The President at last advice was "relaxing" himself in sight-seeing and hand-sawing in Boston. Gov. Briggs made a satirical speech to him about manufactures and the Union, and Mr. Polk swallowed it all as an earnest compliment.

The law course of the University of Louisiana is to commence next November. Judge Bullard takes the Roman Civil Law and its connections; Mr. R. H. Wilde, the Law of Nature, &c.; Judge McCaleb, Admiralty Law, &c.; and Randall Hunt, Commercial Law, &c. All capital teachers, these—possessing great fluency of speech. Bullard is said to be the soundest man of the whole four.

The recent Athens (Ga.) Whig Senatorial Convention resolved that the gubernatorial Whig State Convention ought to nominate General Taylor for the Presidency. The resolution was carried by acclamation.

"Whether the General and the editor will concur in their construction of the real 'sentiments and views' of the latter, may be, and we already learn is, doubted by some."—Cincinnati Atlas.

These doubters have found out, by this time, we guess, that General Taylor and the Signal man are not on such intimate terms as to make it necessary for the Old Hero to employ an obscure editor of a worthless penny paper, to chalk out for him his political "sentiments and views."

OBJECTS OF THE "SIGNAL" FORGERY.

Before we proceed to point out what we believe are the objects of this stupendous fraud upon General Taylor's political opinions, we call the attention of the reader to the opening phrase of the "Signal" forgery. Gen. Taylor is made to say, that he has received the Signal man's letter with the enclosure of the Signal man's editorial. It will be observed, that no reference is made to the date of the Signal man's letter; an omission which does not occur in any one of the sixty and more genuine letters of the Old Hero, printed copies of which we have. But, passing this point as immaterial, we wish to draw the reader's attention to the use of the word editorial. That is a technical word, familiar only to printers and those who are in the habit of writing for the press. It is not at all likely that Gen. Taylor would use it. The word article would more readily occur to non-professional writers, in speaking of the productions of journalism. Indeed, a very intelligent printer remarked to us this morning, that the whole letter ascribed to the Old Hero smelt so strongly of the printing office, that no man who knew anything about the profession could mistake its origin. The word editorial occurs twice in this letter.

Again, it is remarkable, to say the least of it, that General Taylor should manifest such great concern for the prosperity and success of an utter stranger to him, as the concluding sentence of this forged letter makes him express! It is not in the nature of things, for one stranger to write thus to another. It is contrary to the ordinary etiquette of correspondence.

But, the objects to be attained by this piece of forgery?

The Democratic party has been showing unmistakable signs of dissolution in the presence of the popularity of General Taylor. No efforts of the leaders seem to have had any effect in preventing this disaster. Like wise men, they have evidently determined to direct what they cannot hinder. In Pennsylvania, the origin, we are fully persuaded, of this wicked forgery, Senator Simon Cameron not long since put forth a Jesuitical letter, for the purpose of proving what is a base falsehood—that Gen. Taylor is a Democrat. We noticed the letter at the time, as an excuse under cover of which Mr. Cameron and others might escape into the Whig party and into the support of the Old Hero, without violently disrupting their former relations. But the Harrisburg movement of last Saturday, and the appearance of this forged letter, satisfies us that Mr. Simon Cameron has other objects in view. They are to neutralize, if possible, the popularity of General Taylor, and to make it redound to the benefit of the existing Democratic organization in Pennsylvania, and other States in which elections are shortly to take place. Let us examine, and see if we are not right in our position.

The "Signal" forgery makes the old Hero say that he is in favor of Mr. Walker's low tariff, but that the war-debt will necessarily raise it to a point which will suit the most clamorous protectionist. It makes him say that he is a Wilnot proviso man, that is, that he favors acquisition of territory from Mexico, but insists upon excluding slavery from every foot of it. It makes him say that he is in favor of the sub-Treasury, with the Simon Cameron amendments, by which it will become an immense Government bank. It makes him say, in effect, that he will veto no bills which Congress shall send him for signature. It makes him say that he will regard all other public questions as adjourned. It makes him say that he is in favor of the Mexican war, for the purpose of acquiring free territory. It makes him say that he will administer the Executive Government honestly; that is, divide all the offices among the peculiar no-party people who shall elect him President. It requires no prophet to foresee the use which Mr. Simon Cameron and his associates will make of this forged letter. Shall we predict the course of the Democrats in relation to it?

Mr. Simon Cameron will say, and his mouth pieces will echo:—"Democrats, you know that 'the Whigs have impudently claimed General Taylor as a Whig. I told you that last spring that he was as good a Democrat as Simon Snyder and Old Hickory. You see by 'this letter, that I was right, that the Old Hero is a Democrat. He is in favor of 'the Sub-Treasury with modifications. That is 'Democratic doctrine. He is in favor of the 'Wilnot Proviso. Both Democrats and Whigs 'of the free States are in favor of that measure, but it is a Democratic measure par excellence. He is for a high tariff, and so are we 'Democrats in Pennsylvania. He is pledged 'to veto no bills and thus we Democrats shall 'be enabled to get the Harbor and River bill, 'and other important Democratic measures 'adopted. He is no party man, that is, he will 'not be a man of the old organizations of the 'Whig and Democratic parties, but will go 'for a party of his own, who of course will 'be called around him in the administration of 'the government. Now let us Taylor Democrats all hold on to Shunk, and the regular 'ticket at the next election, and when the 'Presidential election comes off, we will move 'with a solid front and give the vote of the 'Keystone to Old Zack, as a worthy candidate 'of our suffrages."

The reader will easily see from these hints how the Democratic leaders will apply this forged letter in Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana, North Carolina, Alabama, and Illinois. It is true our friends on the spot in those States will administer the antidote to this poison, and if the Whigs everywhere, who are authorized to speak, will only act promptly, they can arrest, in a great degree, the injurious influence which this forgery was intended to effect upon the public mind.

TO THE PUBLIC.
THE subscriber having learned that an attempt is being made to injure the reputation of his MINERAL WATER by the circulation of a spurious article purporting to be his, he is therefore under the necessity of publishing the following certificates, and respectfully calls the attention of the Faculty and Public to the subject.

A. FAVIER,
Manufacturer of all kinds of Mineral Waters,

WASHINGTON, June 19, 1847.
SIR: In conjunction with several other members of the Medical profession I gave you, some years since, a certificate of the good quality of your Mineral Water. With a commendable jealousy of your own works, lest confidence in their abiding good reputation should have led to neglect, you have again applied to me for an analysis of several specimens of Mineral Water, purporting to have been made after different methods or by different persons, the particulars of which were not furnished, the only distinction apparent being in the color of the bottles. I have examined the several specimens submitted, and find as follows: The water in the white glass bottles is free from all impurities; that in the green bottles contains a sensible quantity of sulphuric acid, which is evident to the smell and taste, as well as to the proper chemical tests. From a recent inspection of your process, I was led to the conviction that the only impurities which could possibly gain access to the water were lead and sulphuric acid. Of lead I find no traces whatever in any of the bottles; the amount of sulphuric acid present in the green bottles, though small, is objectionable, and must be regarded as impurity, as the Mineral Water professes to be free from all such admixtures. I therefore certify that the Mineral Water contained in the white bottles sent to me was pure, and in my opinion salutary, while that in the green bottles was impure and unfit for a common beverage.

CHARLES G. PAGE,
Prof. of Chemistry, National Medical College.
Mr. A. FAVIER.

WASHINGTON, June 24, 1847.
SIR: Upon testing the water left with me by you, which was in the same kind of bottles mentioned by Dr. Page, I have only confirmed the result of the analysis made by that gentleman.

THOMAS P. JONES,
Prof. of Chemistry.

WASHINGTON, June 19, 1847.
This is to certify that the water analyzed by Dr. Page, from the white bottles, was made by Mr. Favier's apparatus, at his establishment, and that in the green bottles came from another establishment, where it was manufactured.
